#FULFILMENT

fol'fil.mənt / noun

A creative, diverse and inclusive programme, entertaining and enriching for all.

Welcome to the 2019-2020 Guildhall Studio programme. We are now celebrating our second year of great events and diverse music and theatre. As Associate Producer, I am so proud of the work that we have done in this time. We have a proven track record of success and a brilliant network of partners and local promoters that we are working with to constantly add to our programming.

Thank you to all that have supported the Studio across the past two years. Whether you have bought a ticket to a show, or even just picked up one of our leaflets, the community of Portsmouth and the fantastic talent in the city is why we can carry on producing eclectic shows for every audience.

Thank you for your continued support, and we hope you enjoy the range of entertainment we have for you in the season coming.

Ben Clabon,
Associate Producer, The Guildhall Studio
