INSPIRING, ENTERTAINING AND TRANSFORMING LIVES

The Autumn season is always one of the busiest at Portsmouth Guildhall and this year is no different as we launch our biggest and most ambitious season of Classical work yet, we expand our Dance Live! competition for Schools and Colleges across the country, we fully reopen our Square Kitchen Café and commence works on the transformation of our basement, alongside a concert and event programme that is bursting with highlights!

Having received funding from Arts Council England and Portsmouth City Council, we are delighted to soon be starting work on The Base, a creative space for young people that will provide a collaborative environment where young people can develop their creative potential. The project will also provide new toilets for all – something we can all be very excited about! We thank you for your support during the works and please do head to our website to find out more about The Base opening in Spring 2024.

Some of the many upcoming highlights to tell you about include:

- We are excited to welcome several new orchestras to the Guildhall for the first time as we expand our Classical series including Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment and London Sinfonietta.
- Our events, Portsmouth Comic Con and Takedown Festival will return in 2024 with Early Bird tickets on sale now!
- We continue to offer £6 Adult with Child tickets on all Family Theatre shows in our The Lens Studio.
- We have extended the opening of our temporary exhibitions, Icons of Rock: Portrait and Performance - photography by the legendary Barrie Wentzell and Yeah, Yeah, Yeah: The Beatles at The Savoy and Guildhall, until at least the end of the year.

As a charity our Get Involved programme of activity for the community is at the heart of what we do. From singing groups, a skiffle orchestra and craft sessions to cultural opportunities for schools and colleges and support for emerging creatives, there is much you can Get Involved with!
