Context

The Guildhall Trust (GHT) was formed in 2011 to take on the management of Portsmouth Guildhall, one of the South of England's largest and busiest concert halls. The Trust became a charity in 2013 with a board of trustees, a trading company and a clear vision for its future.

The Trust has successfully developed the Guildhall into a vibrant concert hall, with a first-class programme of concerts as well as a Get Involved programme of community engagement. The Trust has diversified the business of the Guildhall with income streams from conferencing and new events. The Trust is working on a long-term capital project, Guildhall Renaissance, to develop a first-class venue for the future.

Over 275,000 people a year engage with Portsmouth Guildhall and the GHT's various activities. We host approximately 150 large concerts per annum, 80 smaller gigs in our studio, over 6,500 school children participate in Dance Live, one of our leading events, and 80,000 people annually attend conferences and events.

From 1st February 2024, The Guildhall Trust added The White Rock Theatre, Hastings, to its portfolio of venues and has aspirations to expand further in the coming years. The White Rock hosts nearly 200 performances including pantomime and has a busy new Studio venue which is used for gigs and comedy. Applying a similar model to the White Rock, GHT is revitalising this venue's music programme.

The core purpose of The Guildhall Trust is to deliver inspirational opportunities so that people want to engage with culture and the creative economy. The Guildhall Trust's vision is that it will become a leading cultural organisation which places our communities at the centre of everything we do so that we can inspire, entertain and transform lives. This is achieved The Guildhall Trust is a charitable trust limited by guarantee.
